ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to thank my Abba Father, Jesus Christ, for giving me wisdom and strength to go through all the challenges and obstacles that I had in completing this piece of writing.

I would also like to thank my supervisors, Ms. Indriani Kuswanto, S.S., M.Pd and Dr. Yugianingrum, M.S. for providing invaluable support during the process of this research and Mr. Pritz Hutabarat, S.T.,M.Pd, who was involved in the supervision of this thesis at an earlier stage.

My gratitude also goes to all my lecturers and classmates. In particular, I dedicate this thesis to my family, especially my lovely father in heaven (thanks for watching me all the time from above); my mother, who has patiently encouraged and fully supported me to finish my study and attain my bachelor degree; my brothers and sister, for being my role models to have a better and successful future in life. Finally, special huge thanks go to my husband, for always being my prayer partner in my daily ups and downs. I am very thankful for your love and support during the finishing of my study.
