ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I thank God because of the amazing grace, I am able to accomplish the thesis entitled Analysis of Code Switching Used in a Class at Harvard Cinderella English Course very well. Along the time I write this thesis, I also got so much help from people around me, especially:

1. Hendra Liem, S.S., M.Hum as the Supervisor I who has given not also critics, suggestions, but also makes me filled with joy along the process of writing the thesis.
2. Edward A. Lukman, M.Hum as the Supervisor II who kindly checks my grammatical mistakes with a friendly approach.
3. Wildan as the research subject who lets me record his teaching speech.
4. My parents, who give me moral support and never-ending prayers.
5. My beloved brother, Alfonsus Albert Nurindro for the fun approach in giving me support.
6. Audrey Revani, Klara Ajeng Canyarasmi, Dedi Wang as my closest people in my life that understand me better than myself. Thank you for your never ending-love and support during my thesis writing.

7. Edwin Nicholas and Sofyan Effendi as my co-workers who help my business a lot when I am not available during my thesis writing. My business owes both of you a lot.
8. Samuel Cahyawijaya, who supports me to make this thesis neater. Thank you for the supportive words too.
9. Monica, Patricia Agnes Melissa, Benardi Atmadja, Cahya Handoyo, Komang Ming Xiu, Stevanus Ivan, Maranatha Christian University Choir, Guang Xian Fo Tang, who give me support, happiness and prayers.
10. People who help me in the writing of this thesis that I cannot mention one by one.

I am fully aware that there are flaws, but I use my best intention to write this thesis. Therefore, feedback is warmly welcome. I hope this thesis is useful for the sake of knowledge.
