ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere thankfulness to God for all of His grace and love so that I could accomplish my thesis entitled Analysis of Dominant Tenses in Gaby Goldsack's Little Red Riding Hood to Teach Simple Present Tense and Simple Past Tense to Sixth Graders.

On this occasion I would like to express my sincere gratitude for all the prayers, guidance, and priceless advice from those who have helped me in the process of writing this thesis, especially :

1. Ibu Maryani, SS, MA, my first supervisor, for the continuous support and her patience and immense knowledge, which have supported me at every point to cherish my goal.
2. Dr. Yugianingrum M.S, my second supervisor, who always guided me with her great knowledge and led my research into success.
3. Ibu Fx. Erna Spd., the principal of Santa Ursula Elementary School, for providing me with the internship opportunities in this school.
4. Ibu Maria Lucia Widiatmi, Spd. and my fellow teachers in TB. TK. Santa Ursula who allowed me to grow and work together in this school, which made me a real life teacher.
5. My dearest friends, Tessa, Jennie, Ellene, Renata and Tasia who always gave me support and joy in the last four years.

6. Last but not the least, I would like to thank my beloved family, who always gives me their best wishes and supports me throughout my life.

Finally, I hope this thesis can be beneficial for those who are interested in English teaching.
