ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to thank Jesus Christ for His guidance during the writing process of this thesis. The thesis writing would not have been accomplished without His grace and blessing.

I would also like to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisors, Ms Indriani Kuswanto, S.S., M.Pd. for supervising and guiding me since the teaching internship as well as the process of this thesis writing, and Dr. Yugianingrum, M.S. for the supervision, assistance, and correction during the writing process of this thesis.

I also would like to extend my deepest gratefulness to my parents, Papi and Mami, for supporting me and caring for me always. This thesis would have been impossible without the endless support and motivation of my best friends Felix, Ellen, Renata, Nover and Filli. I thank them for their kindness; without them, I would never have been able to complete this thesis.
