ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to God for all His guidance and blessings. I would also like to thank my family for their unconditional support and love. I do believe that without them, I would not have been able to complete this thesis. On this occasion, I would also like to express my gratitude to:

1. Mr. Sonny Angjaya, S.S., M.Hum, as my first supervisor, who has given me his guidance, full support, and encouragement in writing my thesis. Without his counsel, my thesis writing process would have been a frustrating experience;
2. Ms. Dra. M. Melly Kosasih, M.Si., my second supervisor, who also has given me her guidance and unconditional support in writing my thesis;
3. Mr. Anton Sutandio, S.S., M.Hum., Ph.D., as my supervisor for Proposal Seminar Sastra. Without his guidance, I would not have been able to complete my thesis this semester;
4. Mr. Rizki Theodorus Johan, S.S., M.A., the Head of English Department, Maranatha Christian University. I am also really grateful to be able to know him as he is one of the lecturers who knows a lot about my passion beside the academic stuff;

5. All the lecturers and staff of the English Department in Maranatha Christian University. I thank them for what they have done over the years. It has been one of the most amazing experiences in my life to study about English literature, to get to know a lot of people here, and to spend the four years of my life in the English Department;
6. All my friends at the English Department, especially Abigail, Nadira, Tiara, Yosef, Natasha Nadia, Kinanti, Lala, Angel, Naufal, and Yudia for their countless support, help, love, and motivation throughout my academic journey and my thesis writing process;
7. All my friends in Maranatha Christian University, especially my friends in MAPHAC, for their support throughout my journey in this university;
8. All the staff in Maranatha Christian University, especially the Securities, for being kind and really helpful during my time here.
