ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to express my upmost thanks to my Heavenly Jesus Christ for always blessing me with His strength, peace, wisdom, and health. I realize that it is only by His grace that I could finish my thesis.

Secondly, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to my two supervisors, Miss Joanna Deborah, S.S., M.Hum. and Miss Cheryl D. Groth, M.Ed., who have always guided me with patience and given me endless support. Thank you for always being kind and never giving up in helping me while writing this thesis.

I would also like to express my profound gratitude to my family: my mom, my dad, and my brother, Andy, for always supporting me endlessly with love and encouragement.

I also want to express my gratitude from the deepest recesses of my heart to my second family, Maranatha 6, and my two sisters in Christ, Cynthia Heriyanto and Cristhie Ayu Santika, for always encouraging and cheering me up in my thesis writing process. Thank you for always listening to my stories with patience and love and supporting me with prayers when I want to give up.

Last but not least, I would like to express my sincere thanks to my best friends – Janice Natasha, Valeri Wijaya, and Clesyana Theadora – for always being my best companions for these four years. Thank you for always making my days brighter and being there for me whenever I need you.
