ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Foremost, I am grateful to the God for the good health and wellbeing that were necessary to complete this thesis.

I would also like to express my thanks and gratitude to my thesis supervisors Cheryl D. Groth, M.Ed and Dr. Yugianingrum, M.S. for the continuous support of my research, for their patience, motivation, enthusiasm, immense knowledge and every prayer. Their guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. I could not have imagined having a better supervisor and mentor for my research.

Besides my supervisors, I would like to thank all the lecturers in Applied Linguistics for their kindness, teaching and every knowledge that they shared, particularly, Ibu Maryani, S.S., MA, my first supervisor who helped me from the beginning of this research.

I also thank my parents for the unceasing encouragement and support. I am also grateful to Ruth Lammananda, my beloved friend who always gave her time, support and attention until I can finally finish my thesis. She is my motivation from both internal and external.
