ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my upmost thanks to my Heavenly Jesus Christ for always showqaering me with abundant blessings – for the wisdom, strength, and health He has given me. It is only by His grace that I could finish my thesis and my study. Secondly, it is a great pleasure to acknowledge my sincerest thanks to my supervisors, Mrs. Hianly Muljadi, S.S., M.Hum. and Miss Joanna Deborah, S.S., M.Hum., who always help and lead me with their kind supervision. Thank you for always being cheerful in guiding me through my thesis writing process. I would also like to thank all the lecturers and staffs of the English Department for always encouraging me and sharing their knowledge in making a better person of me.

Moreover, I would like to express my deepest thanks to my family – Mom, Dad, and Brother Mike & Jeff, as well as all my big family – for always supporting and helping me with all my sometimes-annoying requests. I would also like to take this opportunity to extend my special thanks to my long-distance boyfriend, Ivan, for always being patient in listening to all of my stories, for his endless support, and for cheering me through bad and good times. My gratitude also goes to Vivian Tanto, Valeri Wijaya, and Clesyana Theadora, for being my stress relief and keeping me accompanied in writing my thesis. Last but not least, thanks to all my other friends whom I cannot mention one by one for their helpful support.
