ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude to God, for all His time help, guidance and blessing. Through Him, I can finish my study for the Bachelor of Letters at Maranatha Christian University.

Second, I express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Fenty L Siregar, Ph.D. as my supervisor in Proposal Seminar and Mrs. Cheryl D. Groth, M. Ed as my supervisor in Teaching Internship and Thesis. Due to their help, guidance and motivation, I can compose my thesis completely.

Third, I also grateful to the school where I conducted data gathering process. Because of their permission and willingness to help, I could gather the data that I need for my thesis.

Fourth, I am extremely thankful to my family: my parents, my older sister and my younger brother, for their never-ending prayers, belief and support to me.

Fifth, I would like to thank my friends: Felicia Christivany, Vanessa Tanuwijaya, Vidya Vimuti, Seyla Anastasia, Kiki Amalia, Kristanto Kurniawan and Arryani, for being my support system in almost all aspects of my life.

Sixth, I also would like to thank my friends in Legio Mariae Stella Maries, who have been my friends in growing in God and the Virgin Mary, for their support and prayers.

Last but not least, I take this opportunity to express gratitude to my lecturers, staff and friends who cannot be written down one by one, in the Faculty of Letters, Department of English Literature, for their help, support and togetherness during my study.
