Title: Antioxidant and Antiaging Assays of Hibiscus sabdariffa Extract and Its Compounds

• Reviewer comment:

This manuscript described the antioxidant and antiaging activities of Hibiscus sabdariffa extract and its compounds; myricetin, ascorbic acid, and beta carotene. I think this manuscript contains good information of biological activities from H. sabdariffa, and it can be acceptable for publication in this journal. However, the authors evaluated the biological activity of myricetin, ascorbic acid, and beta carotene in H. sabdariffa. Thus, author should be analysis the content of these compounds in this raw plant by HPLC.
