

ANALYSIS OF SOCIAL CONFLICTS IN JEAN KWOK'S GIRL IN TRANSLATION
USING SOCIOLOGICAL APPROACH

a thesis
submitted to the English Department of the Faculty of Letters in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the 'Sarjana' degree

MARIA HENEZ KEZIA PELUPESSY
1441023

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT FACULTY OF LETTERS
MARANATHA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
BANDUNG
2019

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude to my Lord Jesus Christ for always lighting up the fire inside me and keeping me moving forward to finally finish my thesis. It is only by His grace, love, and abundant blessings that I can finish my study in the English Department.

Secondly, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to my supervisor, Miss Joanna Deborah, S.S., M.Hum., for being relentless in counseling, guiding, and pushing me to be my better self in writing this thesis. Thank you for always encouraging me and patiently supervising me through the writing process from day one until it is finally finished. I would also like to thank Dr. Trisnowati Tanto, M.Hum. as my academic advisor for always counseling and giving me many inputs from the first to the last semester.

Moreover, I would like to express my gratitude to my family – Mum, Dad, and my little brothers Charles, Arlen, and Andrew – as well as my big family at my church, Generation of Fire, for always loving me and praying for me. Thank you for always picking me up when I am down or frustrated and supporting me in every aspect. They are all the reasons for me to have the will to finish this thesis and my study. I would also like to take this opportunity to extend my special thanks to all my best friends whom I call my main girls – Krista, Sister Henni Sidabungke, Nabila, and Vidya – for always cheering me up, helping me out with my thesis writing, pushing me to never give up, and loving me at all times. They are more than my best friends; they are my sisters.

Last but not least, I would like to say thank you to all lecturers, staff, and everybody I meet or know either in the English Department or in Maranatha, for always bringing colors through my entire journey.