ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude to Jesus Christ for His grace and guidance in helping me finish this thesis. I am also very grateful to Him because He has helped me in my study life for the past four years and guided me when I lost my way.

Next, I would like to express my thankfulness to my supervisor, Miss Trisnowati Tanto. Without her help and guidance, writing this thesis would have been a very long and difficult process. Thank you so much, Miss Trisnowati.

Furthermore, I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to all of the lecturers of the English Department for teaching and giving me all the lessons that have helped me in finishing the study.

Moreover, I am also grateful for my parents, who always support me during these four years' study and also the writing of my thesis. Sometimes they gave me quite a lot of pressure to finish my university life faster but I am sure it is all for my better future. Thank you for believing me until the end of the process.

Finally, I want to thank all my friends who have been there with me; Reinthya and Stephanie, our struggles all these years are not in vain. For Susan, Deborah, Vania, Celyne, Keren, and Ica, thank you so much for your support.
