ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude to God for giving me a chance to experience the bitter sweet of life. I am also grateful for Him as He has given me another chance to redeem myself. Besides God, I would like to give my gratitude to my parents. Without them, I cannot complete my study at the University. They have supported and taken care of me.

To Hianly Muljadi, S.S., M.Hum. and Dra. Irene L.Kendra, M.M., my two supervisors who have guided me from the start to the end of writing this thesis, I would like to thank them because without them I may need to take another semester. They have blessed me with their knowledge and time to support me. To Sonny Angjaya, S.S., M.Hum., I thank him for listening to my worries and helping me to go through my times at the university. I would also like to thank other lecturers who have taught me well.

My fellow angels, Jessy, Glenn and Sefreena, I am forever indebted to them. They have accompanied me during my dark time and listened to my worries all the time. Additionally, Senny and Novel, I am very grateful to have met them. Our times together have been fun and will even be more fun in the future. Finally, I would like to thank Destiana, Virliza, and Reyhan for the wonderful call sessions.
