APPENDIX A

Causes of Problem
1. The teacher teaches in a monotonous way.
2. Five children in the class have Attention Deficit Disorder
3. Both the material and activities are either too easy or too hard.

Negative Effects
1. Children focus more on the teaching aids than what the teacher is saying.

Negative Effects
1. It only make the children quiet for a short period of time.

Negative Effects
1. The children will focus on getting the rewards.

Problem
Overcoming the Problem of Lack of Attention of Play Group Children in the Classroom at Kids Talent

Potential Solution I
Using teaching aids that can make the learning process more fun

Potential Solution II
Using some attention-getting tricks to bring back children’s “attention”

Potential Solution III
Giving the children some rewards if they follow the instructions or do the tasks well

Chosen Solution
Using teaching aids that can make the process learning more fun and Giving the children some rewards if they follow the instructions or do the tasks well

Effects of Problem
1. Children cannot remember the lessons
2. It is possible that some children will have some difficulties to go into the next grade.
3. Teacher has to work overtime to prepare more activities.

Positive Effects
1. Children find it easier to learn when teaching aids are used.
2. Children will may give better attention to the teacher.
3. Teacher can control the class.

Positive Effects
1. The children will be motivated to do the tasks.